The Personal Workspace: Benching

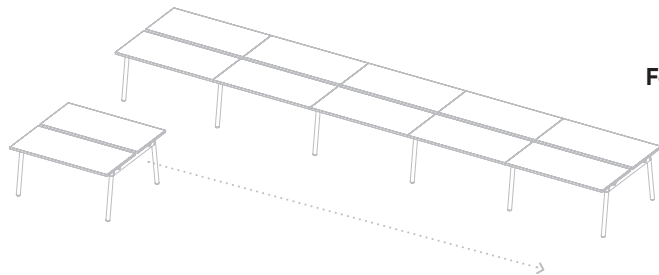

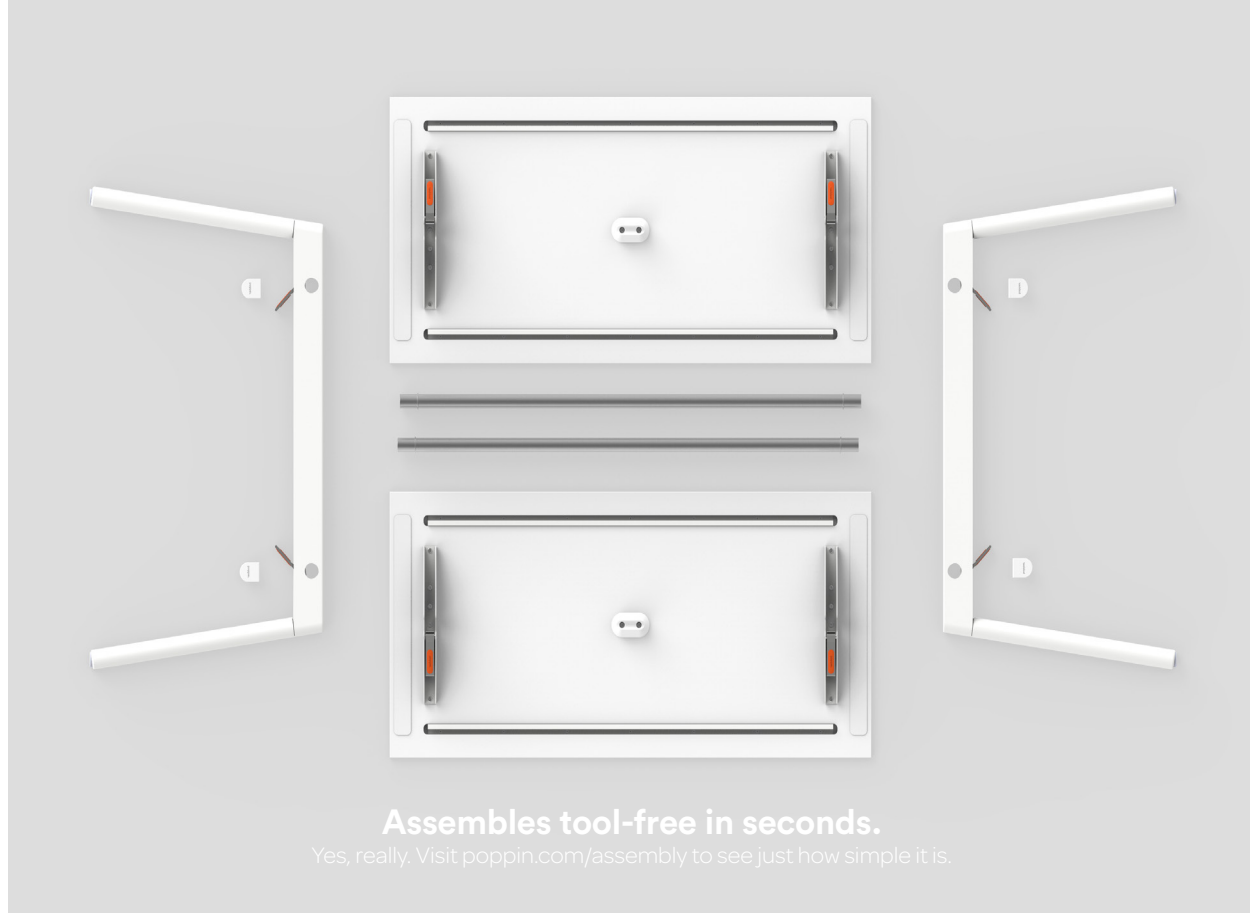

We've reimagined the three core pieces of the personal workspace—desk, storage, and seating—with ingenious design and affordability. Our agile Series A Desk System assembles and scales completely without tools, making it the ideal choice for growing offices.

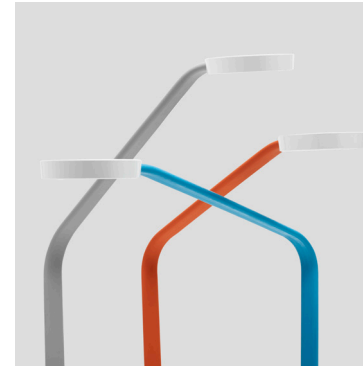

The Personal Workspace: Standing Desks

Designed to increase productivity and promote employee health and happiness, standing desks are the hallmark of the modern office. As temporary “hot desks” or paired with a stool to create a sit/stand option, our Series A Standing Desk System is the simple choice for alternative desking.

Personalize the Workspace

Our collection of add-ons and accessories make the Series A Desk System endlessly customizable. From privacy solutions to integrated electrical, you can create a bespoke system for your space.

Sit/Stand Solutions

Designed for ideal ergonomic work, the Loft's electrically-driven legs allow you the flexibility to transition from sitting to standing in seconds. Choose from a Desk for 1 or 2 to provide healthy Sit/Stand solutions for your entire team.

Our Peak desk riser makes it easy to create a work surface at your ideal ergonomic height. With a simple lifting mechanism and a stable surface, it will turn any desk into a standing solution.

Meet

// Get the team together.

Our collection features traditional conferencing solutions as well as products responsively designed for the needs of the modern office.

Confer + Conquer

Our signature Series A Ping-Pong Conference Table beats the competition on price, design, and innovation. It transforms in seconds from a conference table for 12 to a ping-pong table with integrated storage for the included Stiga® paddles, ping-pong balls, and net.

Recently redesigned with our Series A System technology, it assembles completely without tools so you can get your game on in seconds.
