

CASE STUDY BY POPPIN

Ban.Do

“This table is constantly bringing us together, and that’s really special.”

- Jen Gotch, Founder + Chief Creative Officer

ABOUT BAN.DO: Ban.do is a lifestyle brand specializing in gifts and accessories designed by a pretty spectacular group of girls in sunny Los Angeles.

In the midst of all of the disco balls, piñatas, and giant inflatables at the ban.do penthouse, our fancy new Poppin Ping-Pong Conference Table has become a fast favorite.

Within seconds of the incredibly easy set up, we had an afternoon ping pong tournament.

And the next morning? Meeting time!

- Kelly Edmonson, Director of Marketing + Visuals

Series A Ping-Pong Conference Table

At Ban.do, they're serious about fun. So when they outgrew their old office, they turned to Poppin to put a spin on their new space.

Our Ping-Pong Conference Table transforms from a meeting space to a regulation Ping-Pong table in seconds, making it the ideal work/play solution.
